INVITATION LETTER TO COOPERATION

Dear Sirs/Madams,

First of all, the Board of Director of TVOne Viet Nam Joint Stock Company would like to send greetings, wishes for health and success to our partners.

TVOne Viet Nam Joint Stock Company is founded in 2019 with aspiration and goal towards a clean agricultural industry without antibiotics and chemicals.

Dear investors! Natural conditions have favored Vietnam with abundant and diverse medicinal resources. Along with the development of the era of technology and knowledge has been applied in the preparation and extraction of active ingredients from herbs to serve the prevention and treatment of diseases for humans and animals. The combination of favorable conditions for raw materials along with the development of domestic science and research, and advanced technology from other countries has created a huge potential for development of natural products.

With the vision to become the leading company in research and application of advanced technology in production and distribution of natural products, also to continue the success that we have achieved, we are planning to expand our business and would like to invite distributors in Taiwan to cooperate for long-term partnerships.

With the concept of shared cooperation towards successful prosperity, we look forward to receiving feedback from distributors to discuss and negotiate in detail about the cooperation.
